2	The Yenan Faction is the stronger -LIK Feng succeeded in making binself popular with members of the other faction and was able to learn much of their sims. Because of what he learned he made the following processes to all Communist Party members:
	a. Party ideology is more important than Chinese unity.
	b. The Chinese Communist Party must be pro-Soviet.
	c. These who are not pro-Soviet have violated Party ideology; rest prominent offenders are members of the Sunggei Faction. d. Regardless of factional leanings all must unite in building og better relations with the USSR
	e. All must work toward internationalizing the Communist Party.
3.	There proposals were given to all political members of basen povergenests (under Cormunist control), but instead of strengthening the Ferty these regulations unly served to widen the gulf between the factions.
